Introduction

1. This Agreement deals with the relationship between Us and You in relation to our work as Your agent for your Property or Properties.
2. You should refer to the Definitions and Interpretation section at the end of this Agreement for help in understanding it.
3. Your attention is specifically drawn to our Fees and Charges section which sets out how we will charge for our services.
4. We offer three service levels: Howsy Lite, Howsy Standard and Howsy Protect. The service You have chosen will be confirmed to You in writing.
5. Under the Howsy Lite Service you are instructing Us to advertise your Property to find You a Tenant, and to provide you with a Tenancy Agreement. You will also be able to opt in to certain packages which are identified below.
6. Under the Howsy Standard and Howsy Protect services You are instructing Us as Your agent to let and manage the Property.
7. You agree that if We find You a Tenant We will be appointed as Your sole agent to manage the Property. We will be treated as having found You a Tenant in respect of any Tenancy in which work done by Us is involved in bringing the Property to the attention of any person or organisation who are ready, willing and able to enter into an occupation agreement for the property. This applies whether or not we are the effective cause of that person or organisation entering into an occupation agreement with You. This could mean that you become liable for fees to more than one agent.
8. If you have instructed us under the Howsy Standard or Howsy Protect services and You terminate Our appointment as agent after We have found a Tenant for the Property You may be liable for additional charges.
9. The Howsy Protect service is offered for a fixed one-year term and may only be terminated early under certain conditions identified below.
10. Under the Howsy Standard service, if We have found a Tenant for the Property then if You terminate this Agreement within the first 3 months after We have found the Tenant then You must pay Us an introducer fee of £149.00 (inc VAT).

92. We will carry out credit checks and referencing on prospective Tenants. We will provide You with a summary report of the references only. You should note that a reference is not a guarantee of Tenant suitability and is only a statement that no negative information can be found relating to a specific Tenant. The final decision as to whether to accept any Tenant is for You.
93. If You choose to offer a Tenancy to a Tenant without satisfactory references or without taking references at all, or without obtaining a Guarantor this will affect your ability to obtain rental protection and our ability to obtain cover from the Protect Rent Insurer.

94. We are entitled to refuse to offer you the Howsy Protect service if you instruct us to proceed with a Tenancy despite the lack of satisfactory references and a Guarantor.
95. If You have instructed Us to provide the Howsy Protect service to You, and we consider that We will not be able to make a claim from the Protect Rent Insurer with respect to any failure of Your Tenant to pay the rent because of your decision to offer a Tenancy to a Tenant without satisfactory references and/or a Guarantors, we are entitled to decline to offer the Protect Rent component of the Howsy Protect service. Our fee for this service is £78.00 for each check or re-check that is required.

Compliance Monitor

99. You are responsible for ensuring that You obtain any required property licence under Parts 2 and 3 of the Housing Act 2004.
100. Whether or not a property requires a licence under the Housing Act 2004 depends on several factors including the type and location of the Property, the number of occupiers, and the status and relationship between relationship of occupiers.
101. If the Property requires to be licensed, You agree to make an application or to promptly instruct us to make such an application.

102. We accept no liability to You arising out of the Property requiring to be licensed but not being so licensed.

104. We will check whether there are any licencing requirements that may apply to the Property. We will also monitor any legal changes that may affect the Property and inform you about this. This service is intended to provide you with assistance with licensing and You must satisfy Yourself whether the Property requires a licence.

Rent & Renewal

105. We will use Our reasonable endeavours to collect Rent on a monthly basis from the Tenant and account to You for the balance after deduction of all fees and expenses due or incurred or outstanding within 5 working days of the funds clearing into Our client bank account. Accounting to You for the first month's rent is likely to take longer than 5 working days. We do not guarantee that payment will be made by the Tenant each month and We will not take legal action against the Tenant if rent is not paid.
106. Where We collect more than one month's rent in advance We may charge and deduct the management fee for the period covered by the rent paid in advance by the Tenant before We account to You for the balance.
107. We will contact You and the Tenant before the end of the Tenancy to take Your views and attempt to establish the Tenants intentions as to renewal for a further term and will use our reasonable endeavours to carry out a further valuation of the Property.
108. We will seek to negotiate with the Tenant to achieve the best possible increase in the rent for any extension, continuation, or renewal of the Tenancy. We cannot guarantee a rent increase will be achieved and it will be Your decision whether to allow a Tenant to remain or to ask them to leave with the aim of achieving a higher rent from another occupier.
109. We will use Our reasonable endeavours to arrange for a renewal contract to be signed by the Tenant should a renewal, continuation, or extension of the Tenancy be agreed.

Repairs and Maintenance

110. We set up the Website to allow the Tenant to report wants of repair and other problems with the Property. We will arrange for suitable sub-contractors to attend the Property to carry out relevant works, obtain estimates where necessary, supervise works, and arrange payment.

- 111. We are authorised to instruct third parties to carry out works up to a maximum value of £250 (or such other limit as We might agree with You in writing) for any individual item without reference to You. Where We are under a statutory obligation or are ordered by a relevant body to carry out work, or we reasonably consider it necessary to carry out work to protect the safety of the Tenant or his possessions or to prevent serious damage to the Property then We are authorised to spend any such sum as is reasonably required to achieve this without any limit.
112. We are not obliged to carry out or arrange any works if We do not hold sufficient funds to pay for them.
113. We will arrange the service and the production of a Landlord's Gas Safety Certificate (GSC) in respect of any gas appliances and flues prior to the start of the Tenancy and at the appropriate statutory intervals thereafter unless You provide Us not less than 5 day in advance of a Tenancy starting or in advance of any required renewal with an appropriate GSC from a person licensed to provide one. Any such servicing and inspection shall be at Your own expense. The cost for a GSC will be £85.00 .
114. Our agreement to manage general repair and maintenance work does not extend to major redecoration. We do not arrange significant decoration work such as laying new floors or substantial repainting under our service to You. If We agree to oversee such redecoration project You agree to pay us a fee 10% of the total project costs (including labour, materials and VAT) subject to a minimum fee of £75.00 including VAT.

Inventory & Deposit

115. We will request that the Tenant provides a Guarantor or indemnifier if We consider that to be appropriate.
116. Unless We have agreed otherwise with You or We have been informed that the Tenant has entered into a Deposit Replacement Scheme We will make reasonable endeavours to collect a Deposit equal to 5 weeks rent (or such other amount We consider appropriate subject to statutory limits) prior to the commencement of a Tenancy.
117. If You do not wish us for the Tenant to use a Deposit Replacement Scheme instead of a Deposit You agree to give Us notice of this in writing.

118. Where the tenancy entered into at the property is an Assured Shorthold Tenancy (AST) then We will register the deposit with a Government approved deposit protection scheme and hold the deposit in accordance with the rules of that scheme. We are registered with the deposit scheme run by Tenancy Deposits Solutions Limited (MyDeposits).
119. We will not arrange for the preparation of an inventory and schedule of condition for the Property and all items in the Property unless You specifically request it. You should be aware that a failure to have a full inventory and schedule of condition at the start and end of the tenancy will make it almost impossible for You to make any deductions from any deposit taken from the Tenant.
120. If You request Us to arrange an inventory and schedule of condition We will provide You with a quote for that service which will be provided by a third party contractor. If requested We will arrange a check-out report at the end of the Tenancy, at Your cost.
121. We will make recommendations to You, in line with the inventory and check-out reports, as to appropriate deductions to any deposit provided by the Tenant. The final decision as to what deductions to make is one for You alone. If the Tenant disputes the deductions, We are obligated to hold any part of the deposit in respect of which agreement cannot be reached between You and the Tenant and pay it to the appropriate deposit protection scheme pending adjudication.
122. We will not in any circumstances allow You to hold the Deposit unless You have provided Us with sufficient evidence of Your membership of a Government approved deposit protection scheme. If you fail to provide such evidence by 48 hours of the commencement of the Tenancy or 20 days after receipt of the Deposit We may protect the Deposit ourselves and charge You the fee for deposit protection, insurance and certificate administration for the duration of the Tenancy without notice to you.
123. If You hold the deposit You agree that You will protect the Deposit. You will be responsible for any costs associated with protecting the Deposit including the membership fees of an authorised scheme (where required). You will indemnify Us against any costs, fees, or damages which arise as a result of your holding the deposit.

Deposit Replacement Scheme

124. We may, provided that You have not opted out, offer a Deposit Replacement Scheme to Tenant as an alternative to paying a Deposit. We will give you notice of the details of the particular Deposit Replacement Arrangement which We are proposing that the Tenant may enter.

125. It is Your responsibility to consider whether offering a Deposit Replacement Scheme is reasonably suitable for Your needs. If the Property and a Deposit Replacement Scheme has been used You cannot opt out as the Tenant will be under no contractual obligation to pay a Deposit.
126. We will inform You as soon as reasonably practicable if we are given notice that the Deposit Replacement Arrangement has expired or been cancelled.
127. Where Our Deposit Replacement Scheme applies to a Property, the following terms set out in paragraphs 127 to 137 of this Agreement shall apply:
128. We shall be responsible for:
 - a) collection of the Rent; and
 - b) management of the Deposit (if taken); and
 - c) management of the collection of sums due from the Tenant to the Landlord, as compensation for any breach of obligation within the Tenancy agreement.
129. If the Deposit Replacement Scheme applies to a Property, We will take out a policy of insurance under Our Deposit Replacement Scheme insurance policy with our preferred insurance provider at commencement of a new tenancy or renewal of an existing tenancy.
130. The Tenant remains fully responsible for the payment of the Rent, liability for any breakages, losses or damage (allowing for fair wear and tear) to the Landlord's property arising from their occupation of the Property, and any other reasonable costs incurred by the Landlord as a result of the Tenant's breach of the tenancy agreement.
131. The Tenant remains fully responsible and liable for any of the Landlord's reasonable costs arising from clause 130 above to carry out remedial works, repairs or replacement, including cleaning, as required at the end of the tenancy to return the property to the Landlord in accordance with the obligations of this tenancy agreement, whether or not a deposit has been taken.
132. In the event that a Deposit has been taken and protected in accordance with the statutory requirements, in conjunction with Our deposit replacement scheme, and the deposit is insufficient to cover the Landlord's costs described in clause 130 above, the Tenant will be held liable for any balance upon termination of the Tenancy for whatever reason in respect of any outstanding Rent, reasonable pre-agreed administration charges payable under the terms of the Tenancy, dilapidations, unpaid utility bills, breakages or losses (subject to reasonable allowance for fair wear and tear) and/or any other reasonable costs incurred by the Landlord as a result of the Tenant's breach of the tenancy agreement.

133. If the Tenant agrees the amount demanded by the Landlord for sums owing at the end of the tenancy, but does not make payment by the deadline specified in the demand, We will make a claim under Our Deposit Replacement Insurance policy as part of Our duty to manage the collection of sums due from the Tenant to the Landlord, calculated at the end of the Tenancy as compensation for any breach of obligation within the tenancy agreement.
134. If the Tenant disputes the amount demanded on behalf of the Landlord for sums owing at the end of the tenancy, the Tenant will notify Us within 7 days of the demand.
135. In the event the Tenant and the Landlord cannot agree the amount owing at the end of the tenancy agreement, both parties agree that the dispute between them will be determined by an independent adjudicator to be appointed by Arc Legal Assistance Limited. The Landlord and Tenant agree to provide written and photographic evidence and other relevant documentation in support of their position to the adjudicator within the timescales set out by the adjudicator.
136. In the event the adjudicator upholds the claim wholly in favour of the Landlord, if the Tenant does not pay the sums owed within 7 days of the adjudicator's decision being issued, We will compensate the Landlord by making a claim under the Deposit Replacement Insurance policy.
